

Step up to the plate...

Join us at our training camp
for Lincoln neighborhoods!

Mayor Don Wesely will throw out the first pitch...

followed by keynote coaching from J. Otis Smith of Stand By Systems II, Inc.

Choose from morning
workshops that will hit home
for you and your neighborhood.

Meet at our training table
for a 7th inning stretch and networking with neighborhood
leaders from across the city.

Then, it's back to the field
for neighborhood
team-building practice.

Whatever you do,
don't drop the ball!
Your neighborhood is counting on you!

The purpose of Spring Training Day is two-fold...

to build skills that Lincoln neighborhood leaders can use right away, and to raise awareness of our leadership workshops coming this fall.

The fall program will be a series of hands-on, high impact workshops designed especially for people living and working in Lincoln's diverse neighborhoods. We will recruit our first class of leaders this summer.

If you cannot participate on April 27, but would like to receive information about the fall workshop series, please provide the information below by mail, FAX, or e-mail.

Our Coach

J. Otis Smith, Ph.D. is an officer and senior consultant with Stand By Systems II, Inc., a firm that specializes in team development, conflict resolution, diversity, and leadership motivation. He currently serves as the Interim Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Cheyney University. Dr. Smith has developed a number of interactive approaches to increasing awareness about the impact of differences and the destructive "isms" on personal interactions and professional productivity. He is a graduate of Oberlin College and Temple University.

Sponsored by

City of Lincoln

The City Urban Development Department administers the City's annual allocation of federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), Emergency Shelter Grant (ESG) and HOME funds to improve the quality of life for Lincoln's citizens by maintaining and enhancing Lincoln's built environment, particularly low and moderate income neighborhoods. For more information, call 441-7606 or 441-7864.

Neighborhoods, Inc.

Neighborhoods, Inc. is a local community-based housing organization working to revitalize Lincoln's neighborhoods. It is a non-profit organization which operates as a voluntary partnership of neighborhood residents, local businesses and city government. For more information, call 477-7181.

Heartland Center for Leadership Development
